A Successful Drug Firm. THE CRITIC takes pleasure in calling the attention of its readers to the successful management of Messrs. F. S. Williams & Co., one of our largest and most enterpris-ing drug firms, corner F and Ninth streets, under the Masonic Temple. They are courteous and obliging, and particular that every customer is satisfied. They are mak-ing a grand display of holiday presents. It will pay to look at their goods.

Their Business Booming. Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Stott, Cromwell & Co,'s drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, colds, asthma, broughtits, croup and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

Theatrical Gossip.

The high hat must go.
The theatres have not been crowded so far Tony Denier's pantomime will be at the Blion next week Carpenter's mesmerism at Willard Hall is as funny as usual. Every night.

The New York theatres bave declared war against the high hats of the ladies in the audiences.

"Othello" was the play at the Bijou last night with Mr. Bandman as Iago. To-night "Romeo and Juliet."

May Adams' great burlesquers will appear next week at the Dime. Silvo and Liston are putting up novelties this week.

Hon. S. S. Cox will deliver the introductory address at Miss Kate Field's lecture on Mormonism, December 15, at the Congregational Church.

Mr. Barrett's "Rienzi" at Albaugh's next week will be the event of the season. Mon-lay will be a "first night" hitherto un-known in Washington.

Hallen and Hart are presenting an un-usually fine bill at Kernan's. They will be followed by Clark and Rategan's monster female minstrel organization. Miss Gale did not get a recall as Ophelia last night at Albaugh's, but in the mad sceneshe did so well that she made half the women in the bouse draw their handerchiefs. "We, Us & Co." is knocking the laughs out at the National with gase and dispatch. It will be followed by the Thalia Opera Company, opening Monday in "Don Caran."

Mr. Barrett as "Hamlet," at Albaugh's last night, presented the character with a strength and vividness which won for him frequent recalls. Miss Gale's Ophelia was a success, and the Polonias of Mr. Rogers was most excellently well done. To-night "Yorick's Love."

Mr. Herm Donath of this city has returned from a filteen weeks' trip through the North with Charles E. Verner, playing with great success the part of Lionet Kennedy in the romantic Irish comedy "Shamus O'Brien." Miss Annie Lewis, a Washington girl, is in the same company. By actual count, there were 174 ladies at Washington girl, is in the same company. By actual count, there were 174 ladies at the National Theatre whose lats were obstructively bigh, and 159 whose hats could be seen over by people behind them with long necks. At Albaugh's there were 208 of the former and 38 of the latter. At the Bijou 80 of the former and 108 of the latter. This includes only those on the parquette floor. At Albaugh's there was one lady with a pink and white pile on her head that only those in the balcony could see over. There were a great many whose heads were sensibly covered, and there was none who had their hats off. It will be in order for the theatres to establish ladies' clock and hat rooms. That's the New York style.
